13th June, 1919.

Sir,

I am informed that Mr R. S. Felton who arrived in the Colony last night by the s.s. "Antartica" has brought some ~~pig~~ pigs for me from Chile.

*? Argentina
M.S.

I had not ordered the pigs and I am aware that the importation of pigs from Chile or Argentina is contrary to the law as it present stands.

In view of the fact that there are no pigs at all in the Islands and that they are very urgently required I should be obliged if you would ascertain from His Excellency the Governor whether there is any chance of any alteration of the law in the near future which would enable me to take the pigs which Mr Felton has brought over. Needless to say I should be able, should the pigs be allowed to be landed, to keep them in quarantine for such time as was thought desirable.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

John McGill

The Honourable

Sir,

I am directed by the Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th instant and to inform you that on the Chief Inspector of Stock's being satisfied that the pigs referred to in your letter are free from disease His Excellency has authorised their landing subject to the requirements of the Customs Department. The Governor understands that the pigs have been landed in Stanley from the s.s. "Antartico".

I am &c.
