Dear Sir,

FOR THE ATTENTION OF MR. THORNE

We beg to confirm our telephonic conversation of to-day with regard to a parcel of Falkland Island Tallow which is now in store in London, and it is intended to re-ship to Riga by steamer on the 9th inst.

Our Buyer there informs us that his Authorities require a Certificate certifying that the Falkland Islands are free from Cattle's foot & Mouth diseases. We shall therefore be extremely obliged if you can let us have by return of post a letter to this effect as same must accompany the documents which we shall be forwarding from here about the 9th inst.

Your immediate attention in this matter will greatly oblige.

Thanking you in advance.

Yours faithfully,

FOR THE ATTENTION OF MR. JONES

Dear Sir,

Re: FALKLAND ISLANDS

We have pleasure in confirming our various telephonic conversations of to-day in connection with the Health Certificate covering our import of tallow from the above Islands.

We have again spoken to our Sellers, who have promised to obtain for us a letter from the Falkland Islands Co. certifying that Foot-and-Mouth disease is unknown in the above Colony. We intend sending this letter out to our Buyers in Riga and hope that same will satisfy the requirements of their Health Officials, but should we ultimately find that this letter is not acceptable, then we will communicate with you again; in the meantime, please do not do anything further in the matter.

Thanking you for your kind attention.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

FAURE, BLATTMAN & CO.
