I submit report Mrs E. J. Berntsen licensed 4 Cows 1 yearling on January 8th 1936 licence No 436. She stated at that time she could not find one cow, and after the round up of the Common the said animal was not found. I find Mrs Berntsen has been paying for a cow which is the property of Mr. Des Biggs, being under the impression that the cow belonged to her.

Ranger, Stanley Common.

Can you clear up this matter? The Chief Constable states that one cow could not be found and the other was the property of Mr Des. Biggs.

It would seem that Mr Biggs should pay Mrs Bentzen for one animal.

The Hon Colonial Secretary.

I agree that the cow owned by Mrs Bentzen is missing. I have made a special search on Stanley Common since the 'round up' and can find no trace of the animal, regarding second cow this animal is definitely Mr Des. Biggs property.

Mrs Bentzen had four cows and one yearling licensed until 31st December 1936.

It appears that applicant took out and paid the annual fee of £1 for two animals she has not got. In the circumstances, a refund might be made?

Sir,

When I got the licence for Common grazing I got ~~the~~ them all for my animals at the same time as I expected my horses in from East Island.

When the horses arrived one of my best horses was missing and has not been seen since so I expect it is dead.

As I paid for a season licence for this animal, I would like this money 5/- refunded, please.

Yours truly,

(Sgd) J. Skilling.
