2 I have spoken to Carey, who is employed in the Post Office, and the piece of land he has in mind is part of the Common, East of and adjacent to the Freehold on which Hutchinson's slaughter house stands.

It is about 2-3 acres in extent and has been fenced and cultivated previously by the Department. I gather Luxton, who also works in the Post Office is in company with Carey in this enterprise.

As no one else is specifically in occupation of this field I feel in forwarding their application to you able to recommend that they be allowed to rent the field from year to year so that youthful enterprise may try its wings in this direction which cannot help but be beneficial to the community if it meets with any success.

As I am desirous of growing vegetables for local use, would consideration be given me to rent a plot of ground east of Mr W. Hutchinson's slaughter house recently used by the Agric. Dept.

Yours faithfully,

(A.M. Carey.)
