Stanley,

29th May, 1923.

Sir,

I hereby beg to apply for permission to land eight horses from the "La Paz" shipped at Punta Arenas, enclosed declaration, and I was informed by British Consul nothing more was necessary.

Horses have been fifteen days away from other animals, no disease exists in horses in Patagonia.

I have the honour,

To be Sir,

Yours obedient.

Duncan R. Watson.

IMPORTATION OF LIVE STOCK INTO THE COLONY OF THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

Punta Arenas, Chile.

25th May 1923.

I, Duncan Russel WATSON, of Stanley, do hereby declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the eight horses which I am importing into the Colony of the Falkland Islands in S.S. "LA PAZ", leaving this port on or about the 25th day of May 1923, are free from any contagious or infectious disease and have not, within thirty days hereof, been in direct or indirect contact with infected stock.

Duncan R. Watson

I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the above declaration, which was signed by the said Duncan Russel Watson, in my presence, is true.
