ABSTRACT
OF THE
NET REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE
OF
The Falkland Islands
FOR THE YEAR
1865.

Insert under general heads the Receipts and Disbursements, so as to exhibit distinctly and separately the Sources from which the Receipts have been derived : on the one hand, whether from the Resources of the Colony, from Parliamentary Grants, or from Her Majesty's Treasury; and, on the other, the Total Expense incurred by each Department of the Government; distinguishing the Ordinary Established Charge of the several Offices from their Contingent and Accidental Expenses.

Such Observations as may be sufficient to explain the causes, and point to the remedy of any deficiency in the Revenue, or excess of the Expenditure, must form the subject of a Special Report to accompany the Blue Book when transmitted to the Secretary of State.

"	"	"	6	17	2	It is necessary to explain that the large increase in the Expenditure of the Government of the Falkland Islands (viz. £19,444 "2" 4, as herein shown) for the year 1865, is more apparent than real, inasmuch as the disbursements calculated from January to December cannot be controlled by the sanctioned and estimated Expenditure for a financial year running from March to March. This Return therefore includes nine months of the financial year 1865-66, and three months of the year 1864-65, which is no guide whatever to the actual Expenditure as compared with the Estimates.

There are no Military Posts or Works of any kind in the Falkland Islands. There are no buildings of any description built at the expense of the Ordnance Department or belonging to them.

The Colonial Garrison is composed, when fully embodied of 1 Lieutenant, 1 Sergeant, 1 corporal, and 18 privates of Royal Marines. This force is accommodated in Barracks and in detached wooden Cottages erected by the Colonial Government out of the Land Revenues of the Colony.

The Annual value of these Buildings calculated at the rate of house rent paid in the Colony would be about £260 to £300

The Repairs to the Marines Quarters in 1865 amounted to £50 as per Surveyor General's Returns of Works.

The Cost of the Fuel allowed to the Guardroom is annually about £28.

CIVIL ESTABLISHMENT

Q:

OF
The Falkland Islands

186

Insert the several Establishments of Government, arranged according to Departments, including every Individual employed therein, with all the particulars specified in the several columns of the Return relative to the nature of their duties, their Emoluments, Length of Service, &c.

Insert 1st, All the Officers of the Civil Departments.

2ndly, The Officers of the Judicial Departments.

3rdly, The Clergy.

Insert on the next leaf an Alphabetical List of all the Officers, and the Page in which their Office is described.

Under "Remarks" should be explained the nature of the duties performed by those Officers, the designation of whose Office does not sufficiently explain the functions attached to them.

At the end of the Establishment insert a Special List of all those Officers who have given security for the due discharge of their duties.

ECCLESIASTICAL RETURN.

RETURN of the NUMBER of

Names of the Parishes, in what County or District, and Extent in Square Miles	Population of each Parish.	Name of the Rector, and Value of the Living. Chaplaincy	Parsonage House.	Glebe.	Church, where situated, and the number of Persons it will contain.
Parish of the Holy Trinity	Limits not yet proclaimed Population about 475.	The Reverend Charles Bull is the Colonial Chaplain, and the only ecclesiastical minister in the Colony. He receives £350 a year from the Colonial Government and £25 from the Admiralty. He is likewise allowed a cottage & garden. Rent free - The Patagonian Mission Society maintain a clergyman at their own expense to superintend their establishments on Keppel Island.	The Chaplain is allowed the use of a small cottage, belonging to the Colonial Government. There is no Parsonage House in the Colony.	The Chaplain is also allowed the use of about 1½ acres of garden ground.	The Building used for Public Worship, and known as Trinity Church, will contain about 120 adults - This Edifice was built for an "Exchange"; one wing is used for the schoolrooms and the other is at present appropriated for Divine Service, but has never been consecrated.

CHURCHES, LIVINGS, &amp;c.

Number of Persons generally attending.	Chapel, where situated, and the Number of Persons it will contain.	Whether Protestant or Roman Catholic.	Parsonage House.	Dissenting Places of Worship.	Remarks.
	The largest attendance is in the Morning, and about 50 or 70 persons attend on an average. This number includes the men of the company of Royal Marines forming the garrison of the Colony, and likewise the prisoners in gaol. The Congregation may be said to be comprised almost entirely of Government Servants, since the attendance of adult private Colonists is rarely, if ever, above a dozen. There are no dissenting Places of Worship, and there are no Roman Catholic Chapels in the Colony.

EXCHANGES, MONEYS, WEIGHTS,

AND

MEASURES.

Insert under separate Heads the Course of Exchange; a List of the Gold, Silver, and Copper Coins current in the Colony, and their relative value to each other; the Amount of Bullion and of Paper Currency in circulation; in what Money Accounts are kept; and the Weights and Measures in common use.

COURSE OF EXCHANGE.

Government Bills on the Home Departments are usually negotiable at par; but the rate of Exchange in all cases is entirely dependent on the amount of specie in circulation.

Sometimes as much as five per cent is demanded for coin and in the case of private bills of a commercial nature it is not uncommon to pay seven and even ten per cent.

The principal drafts drawn in the Colony are by the Government on Her Majesty's Treasury on the credit of the Parliamentary Grant, and by Shipmasters on their owners for repairs, provisions

FALKLAND ISLANDS.

PROCLAMATION RESPECTING WILD CATTLE, 5th April 1861.

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes known, that any person holding a licence or lease of a station under the proclamation of 4th of April 1861, and any person holding a grazing district under the proclamation of 31st of July 1849, if the same be actually occupied, may obtain a licence to capture and kill wild cattle for his own use on the following conditions:--

1. Every person shall pay for each ox, bull, or cow captured 14 shillings, and for each calf running with the cow one shilling.
2. Where it appears that the number of wild bulls is excessive, the Governor may grant to any holder of Land as aforesaid permission to kill the same on payment of 4s. each.
3. In order to prevent interference among different Licencees, the Governor shall prescribe the limits within which each Licencee may kill or capture cattle.
4. Every animal captured under these regulations shall be branded with the brand of the owner, which brand shall be registered in the office of the Colonial Secretary when the Licence is issued.
5. Every person holding a Licence under this proclamation shall make a declaration every six months of the number and description of animals killed or captured by him during the preceding six months, and pay the fees thereon to the Colonial Secretary.
6. The Licence of any person making a false declaration shall be revoked.
7. Every Licence granted under these regulations, and the number and description of animals killed and captured under each Licence, shall be published from time to time on the Government Gazette Board.
8. On sufficient cause being shown, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, grant to any person, not being a holder of Land as aforesaid, a Licence to kill on Crown Lands such wild cattle as he may require for consumption only, on payment of a fee of 1l. for each animal.

Published By order, of His Excellency, GOVERNOR MACKENZIE.

(Signed.)

W. R. PYNE,

Colonial Secretary.

PROCLAMATION ON GRAZING LEASES, 4th. April 1861.

1. Any person may, on application to the Governor, and on payment of 5*l.* into the colonial treasury, obtain a licence to occupy a station.
2. Every such licence will be given in writing, and be for one year only, and not renewable.
3. Every station will contain as near 6,000 acres as may be convenient, having regard to natural boundaries. The boundaries of each station shall be determined by the Surveyor-General, with the approval of the Governor.
4. At any time before the expiration of the licence, the licensee may obtain a lease for 10 years of his station, at a rent of 10*l.* a year, provided he proves, to the satisfaction of the Governor, that he has built on the land a house, of wood or stone walls, not less than 24 feet by 12 feet, and 6 feet high, and has stocked the station with at least 50 cattle or horses, or 100 sheep.
5. It will be a condition of the lease that, during its continuance, the station shall be kept stocked with at least the number of Stock before specified, and also be occupied by the lessee or any person in his employment, and in case of any failure in this condition, it shall be lawful for the Governor to resume possession of the Station.
6. The lessee of any station must, within five Years from the date of his lease, purchase, at the upset price of land for the time being (not exceeding eight shillings an Acre,) a section containing not less than 160 Acres; and may also at any time during his lease purchase any further quantity of land in his station at the same price.
7. If the lessee of any station under this proclamation, or under the proclamation issued by Governor Rennie on the 31st. of July 1849, shall be desirous of obtaining an extension of his lease, he shall give notice thereof to the Governor six months before the expiration of his lease, and the Governor shall, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, determine whether it is expedient that the land shall be sold or reserved for any public purpose. If the land be not required for sale or otherwise, then the Governor may grant to the lessee an extension of his lease for five years on the same terms as to rent and occupation as the first lease; provided that no lessee under the said proclamation of July 31st. 1849, shall receive an extension of his lease for more than 6,000 acres, and provided also that no such lessee shall receive an extension of his lease unless all the districts leased by him are stocked and occupied in manner herein-before required.
