ABSTRACT
OF THE
REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

OF

THE COLONY OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS
AND DEPENDENT ISLANDS
FOR THE YEAR

1900.

Insert the Receipts and Disbursements under the same general heads as are employed in the Estimates.

Such observations as may be sufficient to explain the causes of, and point to the remedy for, any deficiency in the Revenue, or excess of the Expenditure, must form the subject of a Special Report to accompany the Blue Book when transmitted to the Secretary of State.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES.

As laid down in Colonial Regulation 344, the statement of the cash assets and liabilities of a Colony shall be a summary of the balance sheet under its principal divisions. It is not intended that the statement shall contain detailed information regarding the items which lead up to the totals which are thus inserted, it being provided (Colonial Regulation 354) that these particulars shall be furnished where necessary in separate statements to be appended to the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, as rendered with the annual account. As a general rule, therefore, the Statement of Assets and Liabilities will contain the balances of the undernoted accounts and of such other accounts only as, at the time, represent the principal sub-divisions in the Colony's accounts :—

Assets :—

Cash.
Advances.
Drafts and Remittances.
Stores Suspense Account.
Investments.

Liabilities :—

Deposits (specifying the principal items only).
Other Liabilities (chief items to be separately shown).

N.B.—The amount of the funded debt, or of loans borrowed for fixed periods and not yet repayable, must be given under the head of "Public Debt," and not included in the statement of "Liabilities."

CIVIL ESTABLISHMENT

OF

~~the Colony of the Falkland Islands and its Dependencies.~~

FOR THE YEAR

1920.

Insert the several Establishments of Government, arranged according to the classification in the Estimates, including every individual employed, with all the particulars specified in the several columns of the Return relative to the nature of their Duties, their Emoluments, Length of Service, &c. It is important that the full Christian Names should in every case be given.

The table should be followed by an Alphabetical List of all the Officers, showing the Page in which their Office is described.

Under "Remarks" should be explained the nature of the duties performed by those Officers the designation of whose Office does not sufficiently explain the functions attached to them.

The names of permanent holders of offices alone are to be inserted in the columns. If an office has been filled during the year, or any portion of it, by an acting officer, the fact may be noted in the space for "Remarks"

FRANCE (Consular Agent)	George Isaac Turner	9th May, 1914
ITALY	James Houston	30th January, 1918
NORWAY	James Houston	30th January, 1918.

POPULATION AND VITAL STATISTICS.

Population according to last Census ; or, if none has ever been taken, according to the best means of information that may be accessible.

The rate per 1,000 should be inserted as well as the total number of Births and Deaths.

In this section should be included particulars of paupers, emigration and immigration. This section should also include statistics of infantile mortality, as well as an estimate of the population, male and female, at the end of the year under review (distinguishing between white and coloured). Where it is important to distinguish between various races, the number of each race should be given. This should also be done, so far as possible, in the case of immigrants and emigrants.

RETURN of PAUPERS, IMMIGRANTS, and EMIGRANTS.

Paupers.	Number of Immigrants.	Number of Emigrants.

EDUCATION.

This Section should show the number of Government, State-aided and Private Schools, grouped where desirable according to provinces or principal administrative areas, should state what fees are charged, whether Government grants are given and what other expenditure is incurred, indicating the source from which such expenditure is defrayed. The total number of scholars on the roll and the average attendance should be given, distinguishing between boys and girls.

The totals should indicate the aggregate number of children receiving instruction in the Colony.

It is unnecessary to furnish detailed particulars in regard to individual primary schools, but full particulars of secondary schools should be furnished.

In Colonies containing a large number of schools, it will be sufficient, if no detailed return of them already exists, to state full particulars of those only which are Government Institutions, giving the total statistics of the others.

Some particulars of the subjects taught in the Higher Schools should be given under the head of Remarks.

Such additional information should be furnished, e.g., in regard to technical education and other matters of interest, as the Education Authorities may deem desirable, and as can be compressed within a reasonable space.

PRODUCTION AND NATURAL RESOURCES.

This Section (which may require modification and adaptation in many Colonies) should be sub-divided as follows:—

1. Agriculture and Land Tenure.

(a) Estimated total area of the Colony and the extent of Crown Lands disposed of by grant or sale, as well as amount realised during the year; together with the total extent alienated, in process of alienation and remaining unalienated at the end of the year. The conditions on which the land passed to private ownership or holding should be stated, under "Remarks."

(b) Size of holdings, specifying the number of holdings—

- I. Under 10 acres.
- II. 11 to 50 acres.
- III. 51 to 100 acres.
- IV. 101 to 1,000 acres.
- V. Over 1,000 acres.

In the Colonies where estates are all of a large size, I., II. and III. might be grouped.

(c) Estimated acreage under cultivation and production (for local consumption and export) in the year under review, specifying wheat, barley, oats, maize, potatoes, coffee, cocoa, tea, sugar, bananas, spices, cotton, sisal hemp, tobacco, and plantation rubber, and other locally important crops.

[These particulars should be furnished as far as possible in respect of each administrative district.]

(d) Acreage of pasture land, divided into administrative districts. If the administrative arrangements of the Colony make it difficult to sub-divide geographically, the total area for the Colony will suffice.

(e) The number of head of livestock (distinguishing horses, asses, mules, horned-cattle, sheep, goats, camels, ostriches, &c.) divided where possible by administrative districts.

(f) The yield (quantity and farm value) of animal produce, e.g., wool (distinguishing cross-bred, merino, &c.), butter, cheese, meat, hides and the like.

(The figures given should include quantities for local consumption and export.)

2. Forestry.

(a) Total acreage of forest lands in the Colony, distinguishing where possible the acreage under commercial timber or other trees of economic value.

(b) Cut of timber of each kind during the year, and yield of other forest products, e.g., balata, nuts, &c.

(c) Number of timber and rubber concessions, cutting licences and the like granted during the year and area covered thereby.

(d) Any useful general information regarding this industry and the possibilities of its development.

3. Fisheries.

(a) Quantity and value of catch of various kinds of fish.

(b) Number of boats and persons engaged in fishing, indicating numbers of foreigners so engaged.

(c) Any useful general information regarding this industry and the possibilities of its development.

4. Minerals.

(a) Quantity and value of each class of mineral mined or quarried in the Colony during the year, with an estimate of the metallic content in the case of metallic ores.

(b) Area of Colony which has been geologically surveyed up to date, with a note as to any important mineral deposits known to exist, but not at present being worked.

(c) Mining concessions and prospecting licences granted during the year, distinguishing the numbers in each class.

(d) Oil concessions and prospecting licences granted during the year, distinguishing the numbers in each class, and quantity of oil produced.

5. Water-power.

(a) Estimates as to the total water-power (in terms of horse-power) capable of development.

(b) Horse-power developed during the year and up to date.

(c) Number (and horse power to be developed) of concessions for water-power granted during the year.

6. A statement as to industrial establishments and manufactories, so far as not included under 1 to 5, carrying on business in the Colony, classified according to nature of industry, with a statement in each case as to number of persons employed, the raw materials used, and the annual quantity and value of the output.

7. A summarised statement of any developments in the agricultural, forestal, fishing, mining, and other industries of the Colony during the year under review, with a statement as to progress up to date. A special account should be given of Government grants or other action for the development of the natural resources and industries of the Colony.
