Colonial Secretary's Office,
Stanley, Falkland Islands.
1st November, 1923.

It is notified, for general information, ~~that~~ the Ceremony which took place at the Cemetery on Armistice Day, 1922, will be repeated as closely as possible this year, on Sunday the 11th of November.

The Acting Governor accompanied by Members of the Executive and Legislative Councils, Heads of Departments and members of the public will proceed to the Cemetery leaving ~~Government House~~ The Town Hall at 10.30 a.m.

A detachment of the Defence Force under the Commanding Officer will also attend in parade order.

Upon arrival at the Cemetery wreaths will be laid by His Excellency, by the Officer Commanding the Defence Force and by private individuals on the Naval and Volunteer graves.

The Cathedral bell will be rung from 10.55 to 11 a.m. precisely, after which two guns will be fired in rapid succession from Victory Green. On the firing of these guns 2 minutes silence will take place after which one gun will be fired. The Hymn "All People that on earth do dwell" will then be sung and the proceedings terminated.

G. R. L. Brown.
for Colonial Secretary.

2nd November, 23.

Very Reverend Sir,

I am directed by the Acting Governor to inform you, with reference to the Anniversary of the Armistice, that the ceremony of last year will be repeated as closely as possible and I am to enclose a copy of a Government Notice which has been published.

2. His Excellency trusts that it will be possible to arrange an alteration in the hour of the morning service at the Cathedral to suit the occasion.

I am,

Very Reverend Sir,

Your obedient servant,

G. R. L. Brown,

for Colonial Secretary.

The Very Reverend Dean Stanley Smith, M.A.,

Stanley.

Downing Street,

17th November, 1923.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the ceremony held at the Cenotaph on the 11th of November, the anniversary of Armistice Day, followed generally the lines of last year's ceremony.

2. Owing to the fact that the 11th of November this year fell on a Sunday, there was an official service in Westminster Abbey, which His Majesty the King attended, and at which I was privileged to be present. His Majesty laid a wreath on the grave of the Unknown Warrior in Westminster Abbey.

3. At the same time, a short service was held at the Cenotaph, and wreaths were laid by Their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales and the Duke of York, by the High Commissioners of the self-governing Dominions or their representatives, and by Major The Honourable W. Ormsby-Gore, the Parliamentary Under Secretary of State, on behalf of the Governments and Peoples of the Colonies and Protectorates.

4. The expenses involved in connection with the purchase of the wreath, including a contribution to Earl Haig's Fund for Distressed Ex-Service Men, will be apportioned as on the last occasion. I did not, however, think it necessary to have the wreath photographed, as it is very similar in design to that which I placed on the Cenotaph last year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,
