

M. E. Durose

2009/28

ASSEMBLY
ROOMS,
STANLEY.

~ A PANTOMIME ~

“CINDERELLA”

An old story retold in an old manner for old and young.

Some folks call this a Pantomime but that's too big a name,
For strings of songs, bad jokes, and rhymes with one foot it is often lame,
As you'll discover e're 'tis done; but call it what you will,—
You've paid your money for your seat, we bet you'll have your fill.

On Friday and Saturday, March 21st and 22nd, 1902.

The Scenery of Act I and the Drop Curtain kindly painted by Messrs. Cornell & Langdon of U.S.S. “Atlanta.”

Costumes by various modest modistes.

Electric Lighting by Mr. C. H. Beever, H.M.S. “Cambrian.”

Stage Carpentering by Commander E. S. Fitzherbert & Satellites.

Musical Conductor - - - - - Mr. J. Bagshaw.

R/CUL/DRA/1#5

PROGRAMME.

CHARACTERS.

THE BARON FOOLEY HOOLEY Mr. V. A. LAWFORD

An impecunious old frostbite suffering from Bailiffs and daughters.

PRINCE CAMEL Mr. J. T. BUSH.

As sweet as his name and not half so sticky.

DANDINI Mr. C. R. NICHOLSON.

A lord in waiting, but not always what he seems.

TIM Mr. E. W. DENISON.

The Baron's man of all work and a certain amount of play don't you know.

BREAK } { Mr. H. WILLS.
SEIZE } { M. J. RICHARDSON.

The men with nine points of the law.

FLORADORA } { Mr. H. C. M. BILLS
DORAFLORA } { Mr. J. F. H. COLE.

The Baron's elder daughters—to avoid confusion please note Dora is the pretty one and Flora the elder.
All presents of flowers and diamonds to be addressed to H.M.S. "Cambrian."

LIZETTE Mrs. KEWNEY.

A French maid surnamed "La Skintighte."

THE FAIRY QUEEN Miss VIOLA FELTON.

On a visit to the Falklands.

BETSY Mrs. WILLIAMS.

AND

✓ CINDERELLA Miss MURIEL DUROSE.

Villagers, Hop-pickers, Courtiers, Guests, &c., by

Miss Wilmer, Miss Alice Wilmer, Miss Kirwan, Mrs. Williams,

Mr. M. R. Bernard, Mr. E. O. Broadley, Rev. G. S. Kewney.

Mr. F. Durose, &c., &c., &c.

ACT I.—

A Hop Field near Fooley Hooley Hall.

ACT II.—

The Kitchen of Fooley Hooley Hall.

The Sprites' Dance in this Act by the Misses V. Lellman, W. Durose,
M. Carcy, D. Clitheroe, E. Anderson, and F. Hardy.

ACT III.—

The Ball Room of Caramel Palace.

The Skirt Dance in this Act by Mrs. Williams.

ACT IV.—

The Kitchen of Fooley Hooley Hall.

There will be an Interval of seven minutes between each Act.

THE Company desire to express their appreciation of the kind assistance they have received in producing this Pantomime from the residents of Stanley—especially the Assembly Rooms Company, H.E. Mrs. Grey-Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Felton, Mrs. Blount, and Capt. Pendleton and Messrs. Cornell and Langdon of the U.S.S. "Atlanta." They also beg to tender their apologies to the various composers and authors with whose works they have made free.
