

A Service of Remembrance

R.F.A. Sir Tristam.

16 Nov. 1982.

A Service of Remembrance on Board
The Sir Tristam.

Mo. November 1932.

Introduction.

"I know that my Reueemer lives,
and that on the last day I shall rise again; and in my flesh I shall see God my Saviour."

Today I think it fitting that we should be here on board the R.F.A.
Sir Tristam, for she was one of those brave ships that suffered so much for the freedom of a land and peoples - the Falkland Islands. But not only do we remember those so close to us in history that many were personal friends who died; but also those who died for peace in wars we perhaps never knew. those of wars that only appear <sup>as memories</sup> in the solid block of the town war memorial; or the war cemeteries of San Carlos, Anzio, or Labuan and the like.

We thank God for them and ask Him to grant them the Peace of Heaven. We pray for their families, for ourselves; for peace in the world, and that all nations may come to recognise the need for peace in Right and Justice.

Prayers. Let us Prayer.
For Elizabeth our Queen.

God, guard and protect our Sovereign, Queen Elizabeth. May she be given those blessings and graces with which you endowed Solomon. May her example be a sign to all peoples that to Rule is also to serve. Protect her family and keep them always true to you.
Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

They feel be changed to peace of mind and heart. Help and bless them in the difficult days ahead. And may those around them help them in their needs.

Lord in your mercy... Hear our prayer:

For Ourselves.

Lord God, your sea and sky separate us from those whom we love, and who love us. Difficulties face us here and at home. Duty calls us to the service of others as well as to our families. Protect our families, Lord, from all outside dangers; help us to understand each other more fully so that our parting may strengthen our love; that the greater the distance in time and place, the closer we become in family. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Peace

(St. Francis of Assisi.)

Lord make me a channel of Your Peace
Where there is hatred, let me bring Love.
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord.
And where there is doubt, true faith in You.
It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned,
In giving to all men, that we receive,
Where there is despair in life, let me bring Hope.
Where there is darkness, only light,
And where there is sadness, ever joy.

Grant my Master that I may seek to be consoled as to console. (not so much) understood as to understand. to be loved as to love with all my soul. to be

Amen.

Stat of Commitment. Let us now say together.

Lord God our Father—
We pledge ourselves
to serve thee and all mankind,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of thy name.
Guide us by thy Spirit;
Give us wisdom;
Give us courage;

Order of Service

1. Introduction by the Minister; (Father Monaghan).
2. Hymn. 'Onward Christian Soldiers':

Verse 1            Onward, Christian Soldiers
                  Marching as to war
                  With the cross of Jesus
                  Going on before
                  Christ the Royal Master
                  Leads against the foe
                  Forward into battle
                  See, his banners go
                  Onward Christian Soldiers
                  Marching as to war,
                  With the cross of Jesus
                  Going on before.

Verse 2            Like a mighty army
                  Moves the church of God;
                  Brothers we are treading
                  where the saints have trod:
                  We are not divided,
                  All one body we,
                  One in hope and doctrine
                  One in charity
                  Onward, Christian etc.

Verse 3            Crowns and thrones may perish,
                  Kingdoms rise and wane
                  But the Church of Jesus
                  Constant will remain:
                  Gates of Hell can never
                  'Gainst that Church prevail;
                  We have Christ's own promise
                  And that cannot fail.
                  Onward, Christian etc

Verse 4            Onward, then, ye people,
                  Join our happy throng
                  Blend with ours your voices
                  In the triumph song:
                  Glory, laud, and honour
                  Unto Christ the King
                  This through countless ages
                  Men and angels sing.
                  Onward, Christian etc

Verse 1                    The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want
                                He makes me down to lie
                                In pastures green; he leadeth me
                                The quiet waters by.

Verse 2                    My soul he doth restore again
                                And me to walk doth make
                                Within the paths of righteousness
                                Ev'n for his own sake.

Verse 3                    Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
                                Yet will I fear none ill;
                                For thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still

Verse 4                    My table thou has furnished
                                In presence of my foes
                                My head thou dost with oil anoint
                                And my cup overflows

Verse 5                    Goodness and mercy all my life
                                Shall surely follow me;

                                My dwelling place shall be.
