16th May, 1919.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No. 16 of the 8th February, regarding the desire of Lieutenant G.W. Royle of the Falkland Islands Volunteers to obtain a transfer to a Territorial Regiment in England, on his return home.

2. I should be glad if you would cause Mr Royle to be informed that in making his application to the War Office he is at liberty to state that particulars as to his service in the Falkland Islands Volunteers can be obtained from the Colonial Office.

I have, etc.,

(Sgt) WILNER.
