Previous Paper.

Mr. D. J. O'Sullivan, Chief Constable.

Over-indulgence in alcoholic liquor.

MINUTES.

1. Lr. Swr: D. J. O'Sullivan, 5th Dec. 1927

Subsequent Paper.

Sullivan, Chief Constable appears to be drinking heavily. On Saturday night last he rang me up after 11 p.m. about two men he had charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Constable Earl has informed me that the Chief Constable was under the influence of drink and I understand that he was also under the influence of drink yesterday, Sunday the 4th inst., By his appearance at Court this morning, the 5th inst., I am of opinion that he had been drinking the night before.

Sir,

I am directed by the Governor to inform you that it has come to the knowledge of His Excellency that you have been indulging to excess in alcoholic liquor during the past month and to convey to you the expression of His Excellency's extreme displeasure.

2. I am to warn you once and for all that any repetition of such conduct which may come to His Excellency's knowledge will be followed by consequences most serious to yourself.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

Mr. D. J. O'Sullivan,
Chief Constable,
Stanley.
