Referenced 10 It is rather early to say to what extent labour for farms will be affected by military requirements.
No doubt all farms will have to go through this season at any rate, short handed to some extent.

PRIVATE.

Stanley,

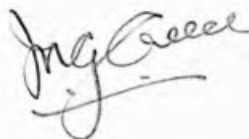

2nd September, 1939.

Dear Mr Craigie Halkett,

I have Mr Goddard's approval to offer my services to Government if I can be of assistance to you owing to possible shortage of clerical staffs due to the present state of affairs in Europe. I am not certain whether the question of my being employed outside Government service affects the position in any way but I thought I should be doing no harm in making this offer. I refer mainly to assistance which I may be able to give during evenings.

I hope you will excuse my writing to you privately but I did not think this was a matter about which I should write to Government officially.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. G. Creech". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish at the bottom.

From C. I. C.

To Hon. Col. Sec.

Med. Dept.

Stanley, Falkland Islands.

I wish to record the facts (1) That Mr. & Mrs. Bound have offered to place their house of nine bedrooms at the disposal of the Medical Dept. in a time of emergency, and (2) That Mr. Wensickson (as I am informed by my clerk) has offered to place his house and his services at the disposal of the Medical Department for the conduct of midwifery cases in a time of Emergency. Both these acceptable offers came to us quite spontaneously.

Dear Mr Hallett,

This note is written in rather a hurry. I wonder if you could let me know as soon as possible

1. Whether I would be of more service, leaving the Colony, as soon as possible, and giving my services at Home, or helping here.
2. If there is nothing of definite service I can do here, can you inform me, if there will be a reasonable chance of getting to England from Montevideo?
3. If there is any definite service I can do here, could you give me an idea of what it would be?

I am,

Yours Sincerely

W. F. McWhann

Stanley, 5th September, 1939.

Dear Mr. McWhan,

I understand that Captain Fleuret spoke to you about the letter you sent me ~~this~~ yesterday relative to your going to England for service. When do you propose to go ?

We want for messenger service two Boy Scouts say 12 years of age or over. They would be temporarily released from school. Can you assist by suggesting two suitable boys. Scouts are preferred.

Yours sincerely.
