Port Stanley
Falkland Islands
March 7 1940

Dear Sir,

I wish to apply for permission to transfer eight pounds or less to the United States of America for boxes of radio parts, ordered before the war, and now held up at Montevideo.

A previous amount of money was sent by me to pay for these goods and I hope to recover this.

If permission is granted, the money will be paid in at Montevideo to a branch there of the National City Bank of New York.

I would like to send it this mail if there is time.

I remain,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,
H E Slade.

The Hon Colonial Secretary
