Public Notice.

The attention of His Excellency the Governor has been directed to the necessity of some steps being taken by the colonists for the maintenance of their indigent poor, and lunatics, a duty incumbent on the Inhabitants of every country.

The labouring man will have to contribute in about 1/- a month, and the more affluent in 10/- a month. His Excellency therefore, with the advice of the Executive Council, is about to introduce into the Legislative Council a measure by which this inevitable necessity may be met.

A municipality will have to be formed, who will elect their own Assessors and Treasurer, the Government merely auditing the accounts. The Legislative Council will assemble some time in March to frame the Ordinance, and in the meanwhile the Governor will gladly receive any suggestions on the part part of the people, as to the best mode of lessening the meeting the expenses attendant on the sale.

Public Notice

Whereas it has been considered expedient that the Pilot Ordinance No 7 of 1870 should be suspended for the further consideration of certain alterations and amendments proposed to be made therein. Notice is hereby given that the Pilot and Harbour Ordinance No 8 of 1853 now still continues in force as the Law of the Colony; until such time as any future Law hereafter enacted may be submitted for confirmation of Her Majesty.

And further notice is hereby given that in pursuance of the powers in me vested by the Ordinance No 8 of 1853 I do hereby suspend the Pilot and Harbour Regulations passed on the 24 September 1857 and make and publish the following Port Regulations for Stanley Harbour.

PORT REGULATIONS.

and Harbour 8 1853

"Whereas by the Pilot Ordinance No. 7 1870. it is enacted, that the Governor shall from time to time make regulations respecting the duties of and payment to the Pilots, and all other matters connected therewith, and respecting the landing, deposit, and removal of gunpowder, the watering, ballasting, or discharging of ballast from Ships and respecting all other matters connected with the safe and commodious navigation of any Harbour in the Falkland Islands." The following rules are hereby to be enforced.—

Compulsory Pilots.

Master to supply
information

1. Every vessel except vessels of War and Colonial vessels arriving at or leaving Stanley Harbour shall take a Pilot.

2. Every Master of a Ship is bound to declare her Registered tonnage to the Pilot who takes charge of her and shall furnish to the Pilot or Harbour Master on demand, a statement of particulars for the information of the Governor, for which purpose a blank form will be presented to the master by the Pilot in charge.

- Deposit of Ship's Papers and Manifest. 3. The Masters of all Vessels anchoring in this Harbour or in Port William to the Westward of a line drawn from Cape Pembroke to William Point, shall within twenty four hours of their arrival, deposit their Ship's papers at the Government Office, which papers will be returned to the Masters on application within a reasonable time before their departure. Provided that the Masters of Foreign vessels belonging to nations which are represented at this Port by Consuls or Commercial Agents shall deposit their ship's papers at their respective Consulates instead of at the Government Office; but in every case the Manifest of Cargo shall be produced to the Custom House Officer, within 24 hours after casting anchor.
- Quarantine. 4. No person is to be allowed to land from any vessel having on board any infectious or contagious disease without permission from the Governor, signified through the Pilot; and every master must answer such enquiries as to the sanitary condition of his vessel as may be made by the Pilot, and no Boat is to be allowed to board any vessel till at anchor nor even then in case of there being any infectious disease. The Masters of vessels are therefore enjoined not to allow themselves to be boarded by any boat from the shore until they have received the Pilot on board, given the required information and read the Port Regulations, and received pratique.
- Permit required for landing Spirits &c. 5. Every master of a ship must before landing any Spirits, Wine or Beer take out a Permit from the Officer of Customs under penalty of £50. imposed by the Spirit Duties Ordinance No. 3 of 1870.
- Harbour. Watering. 6. Any vessel requiring water may obtain it from the Government Reservoir, on application to the harbour-master, and payment of two shillings and sixpence a tun.
- Discharging Ballast. 7. Any shipmaster wishing to discharge ballast will communicate with the harbour-master, who will point out where it is to be placed.
- Gunpowder. 8. Any merchant vessel having on board more than One hundred pounds of gunpowder must be anchored either in Port William or in Stanley Harbour, east of "Navy Point," unless the master will deposit the same (during his stay) in the powder magazine, for which a charge of sixpence per package is to be made.
- No shotted cannon to be allowed. 9. No Master or other officer commanding any vessel (except any vessel of war) shall keep or cause or permit to be fired any cannon on board such vessel loaded with ball, while such vessel shall lie or be in Stanley Harbour.
- Position of hulks. 10. No hulk shall be permanently moored between the east end of Stanley (as defined in Governor Rennie's proclamation of 22nd October 1853) and a line drawn northwards from Villiers Street.
- Moving hulks. 11. Any hulks intended to be brought within these limits, for the purpose of receiving or discharging cargo, must be moved under the direction of the harbour-master.
- Fee to harbour master. 12. For moving any vessel in Stanley Harbour, the harbour-master may demand a fee of One pound. Vessels must not be moved without the sanction of the harbour-master.
- Pilotage. The rate of pilotage inwards for every vessel drawing less than ten feet shall be sixty shillings; and for every vessel drawing ten feet or more six-shillings per foot.
- Pilotage inwards.
- Pilotage outwards. The rate of Pilotage outwards shall be one half the rate inwards.
- Harbour-master to board all vessels. 14. All Colonial and other vessels will on arrival be boarded by the Harbour Master or his Deputy.
- Pilots. 15. Pilots to carry in their boat a flag to be approved by the Governor.
- Pilot Flag.
- Leading a Ship. 16. Pilots if unable to get on board to lead the Ship in the Pilot boat.

Pilots required to board. 17. Pilots are required to board the nearest vessel having a signal flying for a Pilot, except there should be a vessel in sight with a signal of distress.

Pilots to report. 18. Immediately on landing the Pilot in charge to give information to the Governor respecting the Ship.

Offences penalties for. 19. By the "Pilot Ordinance," Section 7, it is enacted, that any master, pilot, or other person who shall offend against these the regulations made by the Governor in pursuance of the said Ordinance, shall pay a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds.

In witness whereof I, the said Governor have to these regulations affixed my hand at Government House, Stanley, Falkland Islands, the ~~First~~ ^{22nd} day of ~~June~~ ^{June} 1871.
