Boundaries of Cemetery.

From East to West the space between the line dividing lots Nos. 41 and 42, and the Western wall of the Cemetery; from North to South the space between the northern wall of the Cemetery and the Fitzroy

Road, being six chains and eighty links from East to West, and six chains and fifty links from North to South, enclosing an area of four acres, one rood and twenty seven perches, and including lots Nos. 40, 41, and 96; and the whole shall be enclosed by a substantial fence or wall.

Investiture.

4. The Cemetery shall be vested in the Governor of the Falkland Islands for the purposes of a Cemetery for the use of the Colony and may be transferred hereafter to the Burial Board should it be incorporated as a Body Corporate.

Space to be left round Cemetery.

No dwelling house to erected within 100 feet of Cemetery.

5. The Cemetery shall be surrounded on all sides by an open space or road, not less than one chain in width, and no dwelling house, except the Caretaker's Cottage and appurtenances, shall be erected in the Cemetery or within one hundred feet of the outer wall or fence.

Burial Board.

6. There shall be a Burial Board composed of the following Members:—

The Colonial Secretary for the time being; the Incumbent of Christ Church Cathedral for the time being; the Priest, if any, for the time being in charge of the Roman Catholic Chapel in Stanley; and the Minister, if any, for the time being attached to the Baptist Chapel in Stanley; two Unofficial Members of the Legislative Council; and two persons residing in the Town of Stanley, or within one mile thereof, to be appointed by the Governor. Provided always that the two persons appointed by the Governor shall not continue in Office longer than two years without being reappointed.

Chairman of Board.

7. The Colonial Secretary shall be chairman of the Board and shall preside at its Meetings. In his absence the Members present will elect a chairman. The Sexton of Christ Church Cathedral shall act as Clerk to the Board when required, and perform such other duties as the Board may consider necessary.

Sexton to be Clerk.

Meetings of Board.

8. The Board shall meet at least once in every three months and at such other time as at any previous Meeting shall have been determined upon; and it shall be at all times competent for any two Members of the Board by writing under their hands to summon, with at least forty-eight hours notice, the Board for any special purpose mentioned in such writing, and to meet at such time as shall be appointed therein.

Quorum.

9. At all Meetings of the Board any number not less than three Members of such Board shall be sufficient number for transacting business and for exercising all the powers of the Board.

Minutes of proceedings.

10. Entries of all proceedings of the Board, with the names of the Members who attend each Meeting, shall be made in books to be provided and kept for that purpose, under the direction of the Board, and shall be signed by the Presiding Member. The Board shall likewise provide and keep books in which shall be entered true and regular accounts of all sums of money received and paid for or on account of the purposes of this Ordinance, and of all liabilities incurred by them for such purposes, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money are paid and such liabilities incurred.

Accounts of Board.

Accounts to be balanced annually on 30th September.

11. The accounts of the Board shall be made up and balanced to the thirtieth day of September in each year; and some time in the month of December in every year, not later than the fifteenth day thereof, the Board shall cause to be forwarded to the Colonial Secretary, for the information of the Governor-in-Council, an account of all sums of money received and expended by the Board under the provisions of this Ordinance, and a statement of the purposes of all expenditure and of the balance of money, if any, remaining in hand; and all or any of the books which shall be kept by the Board as hereinbefore provided, shall at all times be placed before the Governor in Council for inspection, when so required, on due notice to the Board from the Colonial Secretary.

Accounts to be forwarded annually to Colonial Secretary.

Books to be produced whenever desired to Governor in Council.

12. The Board shall have the management and control of all matters connected with the Cemetery, and may permit the building of a Chapel or Chapels for the performance of the Burial Service, either in the consecrated or unconsecrated parts thereof, and may lay out and embellish the grounds of the Cemetery as they think fit.

Board to have control of Cemetery.

13. The Board shall keep the Cemetery, the Caretaker's Cottage, and the Chapel or Chapels, if any, and the walls or fences enclosing the Cemetery in good order and condition out of such monies as shall be received by them by virtue of this Ordinance, or by public or private contributions, or from any other funds made applicable to such purpose.

Board to attend to upkeep of Cemetery.

14. The Board shall, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, allow certain portions of the Cemetery to be consecrated in addition to those portions already consecrated, provided that a sufficient area in the opinion of the Governor in Council remains unconsecrated, and that an adequate portion of the Cemetery is reserved exclusively for the burial of Roman Catholics. The Board shall define by suitable marks the consecrated portions of the Cemetery and the portion set apart for the burial of Roman Catholics.

Board to allow portions of Cemetery to be consecrated subject to approval of Governor in Council.

15. The Board shall appoint such persons as they may think fit, to be grave diggers, and shall fix the rate of charges for digging graves.

Board to appoint grave diggers.

16. The Board may set apart such parts of the Cemetery as they may think fit for the purpose of granting exclusive rights of burial therein, and may sell, either in perpetuity or for a limited time, and subject to such conditions as shall be hereafter determined, the exclusive right of burial in any parts of the Cemetery so set apart, or the right of one or more burials therein, and they may grant the right by sale or otherwise of placing any monument or gravestone in the Cemetery, or of any railing or other enclosure, or any tablet or monumental inscription on the walls of any Chapel or other building within the Cemetery.

Parts of Cemetery may be set apart for exclusive burial.

17. The Board shall cause a plan of the Cemetery to be made on a scale sufficiently large to show the situation of every burial place in all parts of the Cemetery so set apart, and in which an exclusive right of burial has been granted, and all such burial places shall be numbered, and such numbers shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and such book shall contain the names and descriptions of the several persons to whom the exclusive right of burial in any such place of burial has been granted by the Board, and no place of burial, with exclusive right of burial therein, shall be made in the Cemetery without the same being marked out in such plan, and a corresponding entry made in the said book, and the said plan and book shall be kept by the Board.

Plan and book of reference to be kept.

18. The Board may grant, in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect, the exclusive right of burial in any part of the Cemetery, either in perpetuity or for a limited time, and of the right of one or more burials therein, or of placing therein any monument, tablet or gravestone, or any railings or other enclosures round the same.

Form of grant of exclusive right of burial.

19. A register of all such grants shall be kept by the Board, and within fourteen days after the date of any such grant, an entry or memorial of the date thereof, and of the parties thereto, and also the consideration for such grant, and also a proper description of the ground described in such grant, so as the situation thereof may be ascertained, shall be made by the Board in such register; and the Board shall be entitled to demand any sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, for every such entry or memorial, and the said register may be perused at all reasonable times by any grantee or assignee of such right on payment of one shilling.

Register of grants to be kept.

Exclusive right of burial place to be personal estate of Grantee, to be assignable, or may be bequeathed by Will.

20. The exclusive right of burial in any such place of burial shall, whether granted in perpetuity or for a limited time, be considered as the personal estate of the grantee, and may be assigned in his lifetime or bequeathed in his Will.

Form of assignment.

21. Every such assignment made in the lifetime of the assignor shall be by deed, in which the consideration shall be duly set forth and may be in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect.

Assignment to be registered.

22. Every such assignment shall, within six months after the execution thereof, if executed in the Falkland Islands, or within six months after the arrival thereof in the Falkland Islands, if executed elsewhere, be produced to the Board, and an entry or memorial of such assignment shall be made in the register by the Board in the same manner as that of the original grant, and until such entry or memorial, no right of burial shall be acquired under any assignment, and for every such entry or memorial the Board shall be entitled to demand any sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence.

Probates of Wills by which the exclusive right of burial is bequeathed to be registered.

23. An entry or memorial of the Probate of every Will by which the exclusive right of burial within the Cemetery is bequeathed, and in case there be any specific disposition of such exclusive right of burial in the said Will, an entry of such disposition shall, within six months after the Probate of such Will, be made in the said register in the same manner as that of the original grant, and until such entry, no right of exclusive burial shall be acquired under such Will; and for every such entry or memorial the Board shall be entitled to demand any sum not exceeding two shillings and six pence.

Burial place to be kept exclusively for purchaser of exclusive right.

24. No body shall be buried in any place wherein the exclusive right of burial shall have been granted by the Board, except with the consent of the owner, for the time being, of such exclusive right of burial.

No such grant to give the right of burial in consecrated ground to certain persons.

25. No such grant as aforesaid shall give the right to bury within the consecrated part of the Cemetery the body of any person not entitled to be buried in consecrated ground according to the rights and usage of the Church of England, or to place any monument, gravestone, tablet, or monumental inscription respecting any such body within the consecrated part of the Cemetery.

Power to remove monuments, &c., improperly erected.

26. The Board may take down and remove any gravestone, monument, tablet, or monumental inscription, and any railings or other enclosures which shall have been placed within the Cemetery without their authority.

Board may grant exclusive rights to burial places already occupied, and to monuments, &c., already placed therein.

27. With respect to interments made in the Cemetery previous to the operation of this Ordinance, the Board shall have the same power and authority to grant exclusive rights to such burial places, and to the right of any monuments, tablets, gravestones, railings, or other enclosures which shall have already been placed thereon, in like manner as hereinbefore provided for the purchase of such rights, and all such burial places shall be measured and defined by boundary marks, and by numbers in regular order, and shall be duly marked upon the plan of the Cemetery, and entered in the register book, and the rate of payment for the same shall be at the rate fixed for all such exclusive burial places, according to the space of ground occupied.

28. The Board may make Rules and Bye-laws for the maintenance and control of the Cemetery and particularly with respect to the following matters; that is to say:—

Power of Board to make Bye-laws.

(1) With respect to the minimum and maximum size and depth of all graves; and of all spaces in which exclusive rights of burial are granted, as hereinbefore provided.

(2) The conditions on which exclusive rights of burial may be granted, and the price to be paid for the minimum size of such spaces, and the price per superficial foot at a largely increased rate of any additional space between the minimum and maximum size of spaces so granted.

(3) The price and conditions of the sale of a right to place monuments, gravestones, or any railing or other enclosure in the Cemetery, or of placing any tablet or monumental inscription on the walls of any Chapel or other building within the Cemetery.

(4) The rate and amount of all fees to be paid to any Officer of the Board for attending at funerals, allotting graves, or any other duties for which he ought properly to receive fees.

29. All Rules and Bye-laws shall be approved by the Governor-in-Council before they shall have the force of law.

Bye-laws to be approved by the Governor in Council.

30. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to affect the powers of the Board of Health with respect to burial grounds, and the burial of the dead under the provisions of the Public Health Ordinance, 1894.

Ordinance not to affect powers of Board of Health.

31. Every person who shall wilfully destroy or injure any building, wall or fence, belonging to the Cemetery, or destroy or injure any plant therein, or who shall daub or disfigure any wall thereof, or put up any bill therein, or on any wall thereof, or wilfully destroy, injure, or deface any monument, tablet, inscription, or gravestone, or other enclosure within the Cemetery, or do any wilful damage therein, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay to the Board over and above the amount of injury done, a sum not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for damaging the Cemetery.

32. Every person who shall play at any game or sport, or discharge fire-arms, save at a Military funeral, in the Cemetery, or shall wilfully and unlawfully disturb any persons assembled in the Cemetery for the purpose of burying any body therein, or who shall commit any nuisance within the Cemetery, shall forfeit and pay to the Board a sum not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for committing a nuisance in the Cemetery.

33. All penalties and forfeitures incurred under this Ordinance may be recovered in a summary manner before the Police Magistrate, with costs, on the complaint of any Member or Officer of the Board.

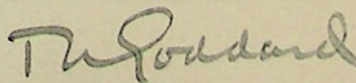

Recovery of Penalties.

34. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Stanley Cemetery Ordinance, 1914."

Short title.

(f) Sheep dips.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to sales of poisons by wholesale dealers in the ordinary course of wholesale dealing, if an order in writing signed by the purchaser is given for the supply of the same, provided that the sales shall be entered in a book, and the packages of poison shall be labelled as directed by section 8 hereof.

Persons qualified to deal in poisons.

3. (1) It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or deal in poisons who is not either:—

(a) a Medical Practitioner or Dentist registered under the provisions of the Medical Practitioners, Midwives, and Dentists Ordinance, 1914, or

(b) a duly qualified and licensed apothecary or chemist.

(2) Whosoever, not being qualified as aforesaid, sells or deals in any poisons shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Sale of poisons to be entered in a book.

4. (1) Every person who sells any poison specified in the first part of the first schedule hereto, shall, before delivery thereof to the purchaser, inquire his name, place of abode, and occupation, and the purpose for which the poison is required or stated to be required.

(2) The vendor shall thereupon make a faithful entry of the sale, specifying the poison and the quantity thereof, and all the particulars so given by the purchaser, together with the day of the month and year of the sale, in a book to be kept by the vendor for that purpose in the form in the second schedule hereto.

(3) The entry shall be signed by the person making the same and also by the purchaser, unless he declares himself unable to write, in which case the person making the entry shall add thereto the words "purchaser cannot write."

(4) Whenever a witness to the sale is required by this Ordinance the entry shall be signed by that witness, who shall also state his place of abode.

5. (1) In cases where sales and purchases of poisons are made by correspondence, the letter ordering the same shall be preserved by the vendor and a memorandum of the date of the said letter, by whom it was written, and the quantity and particulars of the poison therein ordered, shall be entered in the said book.

(2) No person shall sell any poison so ordered to any person with whose signature he is not acquainted, unless the signature has been witnessed by a justice of the peace, clergyman, or public officer, or is authenticated by some person known to the vendor.

Restrictions as to sale of any poison specified in the first part of the first schedule hereto.

6. (1) No person shall sell any poison specified in the first part of the first schedule hereto to any person who is under eighteen years of age, or who is unknown to the vendor, unless the sale is made in the presence of some witness who is known to the vendor and knows the purchaser.

(2) The witness shall sign his name and add his place of abode to the required entry before the delivery of the poison to the purchaser.

7. Whosoever—

(a) Sells any poison specified in the first part of the first schedule hereto and delivers the same without having made and signed the entries required by this Ordinance; or

(b) Sells that poison without having obtained the signature to such entry as is required by this Ordinance; or

(c) Purchases the poison and gives false information in answer to inquiries to the person selling the same in relation to the particulars which the vendor is by this Ordinance authorised to inquire of such purchaser; or

(d) Signs his name as a witness to the sale of the poison to a person unknown to him; shall for every offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

8. No person shall sell any poison specified in the second part of the first schedule hereto or any substance or preparation which has been or is hereafter declared to be a poison as herein provided either by wholesale or retail, unless the bottle, or other vessel, wrapper or cover, box, or case immediately containing the same bears thereon the word "Poison" printed conspicuously, together with the name of the article and the name and address of the seller thereof.

Rules to be observed in the sale of poisons.

9. Whosoever sells any poison otherwise than as herein provided shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds. For the purpose of this section the person on whose behalf a sale is made by any apprentice or servant shall be deemed to be the seller. Provided that the apprentice or servant shall also be liable to a like penalty.

Penalties.

10. The books required to be kept under this Ordinance shall at any time be open to inspection by a Government medical officer, the chief constable or, on the order of a stipendary magistrate, by a constable or officer of the police. Any person refusing to allow or hindering an inspection of the books by a Government medical officer, the chief constable, or by a duly authorised officer or constable shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one pound.

Inspection of books.

11. (1) The Governor-in-Council may make further regulations as to the colouring of any poison, or the sale or custody of the same, or for otherwise carrying into effect the objects of this Ordinance.

Regulations.

(2) The regulations shall be published in the Gazette and shall thereupon have the same force and validity as if they formed part of this Ordinance.

12. Whosoever, being the owner or other person in charge or possession of any poison, leaves it in any place (whether the same is ordinarily accessible to others or not) unless the bottle or package of whatever kind in which the poison is contained is marked "Poison" and is otherwise duly labelled in the manner provided by section 8, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

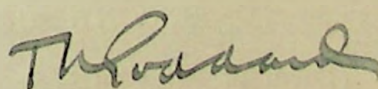

Poisons to be labelled.

13. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as the "Poisons Ordinance, 1914."

An Ordinance

For the preservation of Penguins.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of the Falkland Islands, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. Ordinance No. 1 of 1867, entitled "An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the Ordinances relating to the destruction of Penguins," and Ordinance No. 7 of 1909, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the preservation of Penguins in the Dependencies"; are hereby repealed. Repeal.

2. It shall not be lawful for any person to take or destroy penguins' eggs on the East Falkland Island and islands adjacent thereto, lying North of Choiseul Sound and Brenton Loch, or the West Falkland Island and Islands adjacent thereto, or in any Dependency of the Colony, unless he shall first have been duly licensed. Unlawful to take penguins' eggs without a license.

3. The Colonial Secretary, a Stipendiary Magistrate, a Justice of the Peace, a Deputy Collector of Customs, or such other officer or officers as the Governor may appoint for the purpose, may grant licenses to take penguins' eggs within the territorial limits defined in the preceding section, to such persons as may apply for them for such periods, and on such terms and conditions in respect of the number and description of eggs to be taken, the territorial limits within which they may be taken, under such licenses, and the payment to be made in respect thereof, as may be approved by the Governor. Granting of licenses.

Governor in Council may make regulations.

4. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance, and the intent and object thereof, and may impose penalties not exceeding ten pounds for the breach of such regulations.

Regulations to be published in the Government "Gazette".

5. All regulations made in pursuance of this Ordinance shall be published in the Government "Gazette" and shall come into force on such day as the Governor may direct by notice in that behalf published in the Government "Gazette."

Penalty for taking penguins' eggs without a license.

6. Any person who, after the coming into operation of this Ordinance, shall, without a license or contrary to the terms and conditions of any license which may have been granted to him under this Ordinance, take or destroy, or incite any other person to take or destroy any penguins' eggs within the territorial limits defined in section 2 of this Ordinance, shall on conviction before a Stipendiary Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay for every egg so taken or destroyed a sum not exceeding five shillings,

Liability of an owner or master of a vessel,

7. Any owner or master or other person in charge of any vessel, who shall permit such vessel, or any boat or canoe belonging to such vessel, to be employed in taking or destroying penguins' eggs, or who shall permit or negligently suffer any person belonging to such vessel to be employed in taking or destroying penguins' eggs, contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall forfeit any eggs so taken and any eggs found in his possession, and in addition thereto shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for each offence.

Prosecution of offences.

8. Offences under this Ordinance or under any regulations made thereunder, may be prosecuted, and any penalties and forfeitures under this Ordinance, or any regulations thereunder, may be recovered before a Stipendiary Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace in a summary manner.

Venue.

9. For all purposes of and incidental to the trial and punishment of any person accused of any offence under this Ordinance, and the proceedings and matters preliminary and incidental to and consequential on his trial and punishment, and for all purposes of and incidental to the jurisdiction of any Court, or of any Constable or Officer with reference to such offence, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either in the place in which it was actually committed or in any place in which the offender may for the time being be found.

Recovery of penalties

10. Any penalty adjudged under this Ordinance to be paid by the owner or master, or other person in charge of a vessel, may be recovered in the ordinary way, or, if the Court think fit so to order, by distress or arrest and sale of the vessel to which the offender belongs, and her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and any property on board thereof or belonging thereto, or any part thereof.

Service of summons.

11. Service of any summons or other matter in any legal proceedings under this Ordinance shall be good service if made personally on the person to be served, or at his last place of abode, or if made by leaving such summons or other matter for him on board any vessel to which he may belong, with the person being or appearing to be in command or charge of such vessel.

12. The Governor, and any person duly authorised by him in writing, may take or destroy for a scientific or any other special purpose, any penguins' eggs, and in so doing shall be exempt from any penalties and forfeitures under this Ordinance.

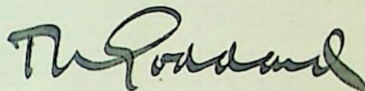

Special exemption.

13. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as the "Penguins' Preservation Ordinance, 1914," and shall be in force in the Dependencies.

An Ordinance to Amend the Volunteer Ordinance, 1893.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of the Falkland Islands, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. Every Volunteer when called out on active service by Proclamation under the hand of the Governor shall receive from the Government such pay and allowances, quartering and billeting, as the Governor-in-Council shall from time to time direct, and while in receipt of such will not be entitled to claim pay from his employer, except at such times and under such conditions as are hereinafter specified.

Pay and Allowances.

2. When on the written request of an employer a Volunteer is permitted or instructed by the Commanding Officer temporarily to resume his civil employment no payment shall be made by the Government in respect of the period during which such Volunteer shall be released from military duty, and the employer shall pay full wages to the Volunteer in respect of such time as he shall work for his employer during the period of such release.

Pay on release from military duties.

Prevention of employees from becoming Volunteers.

3. Should any employer apply for the temporary services of Volunteers other than his own employees, he shall be responsible for the full payment, at the current rate of wage, of such men as may by the Commanding Officer with the approval of the Governor be selected to perform such work in respect of such time as they are thus employed.

Regulations.

4. If it is brought to the knowledge of the Commanding Officer that any employer, by threats or otherwise, wilfully prevented or endeavoured to prevent an employee from becoming a Volunteer at any time during which the Volunteer Force or any part thereof is on active service, the Commanding Officer may institute proceedings against such employer, and any employer convicted under this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for each offence.

Courts-Martial.

5. The Governor-in-Council may from time to time make, amend, and revoke Regulations appertaining to the general management, discipline, and control of the Volunteer Force, and such Regulations may provide for the punishment of any infraction thereof.

6. At such times as the need arises and it appears to the Governor, having regard to the officers at his disposal, that the provisions of the Army (Annual) Act with regard to Courts-Martial cannot be given effect to, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint such Officers as he may consider desirable to sit on Courts-Martial which shall have all the powers and responsibilities attaching under the Army (Annual) Act above mentioned to Regimental, District, General, and Field General Courts-Martial as the case may be.

FALKLAND ISLANDS.

(11th July, 1918)

An Ordinance to Authorise and Regulate Prospecting and Mining.

WHEREAS all grants or leases of Crown lands now in force in the Colony with certain exceptions contain provisions the effect of which is (a) to limit the use of the land by the grantee or lessee to use for pastoral purposes only and (b) to reserve to the Crown in some cases all mines of silver, gold, and other precious metals and all mines of coal and in other cases all diamonds and all mines of gold, silver and other metals and all mines of coal, in or under the said land and in either case with full liberty at all times to search and dig for and carry away the same and for that purpose to enter upon the said land or any part thereof:

Preamble.

AND WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the extent of the rights reserved to the Crown in respect of lands the subject of such grants or leases:

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to put an end to such doubts and to make provision for authorising and regulating the prospecting for and working of minerals in or under such lands in manner hereinafter appearing:

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of the Falkland Islands, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Mining Ordinance, 1918."

Short Title.

2. In this Ordinance and any Regulations made thereunder the word "mineral" means and includes precious stones, precious metals, metals and all minerals of any kind whatsoever including coal, bituminous shale and mineral oil.

Definition of Mineral.

3. This Ordinance shall apply only to unalienated Crown Lands and to lands the subject of an existing Crown grant or Crown lease the effect of which is to confine the user of such land by the grantee or lessee to pastoral purposes only and to reserve to the Crown all mines of silver, gold and other precious metals and all mines of coal; or all diamonds and all mines of gold, silver, and other metals and all mines of coal, as the case may be.

Lands to which this Ordinance applies.

Assent
Douglas Young
Governor.
11th July 1918.

No person to prospect or mine without authority.

4. No person shall prospect for or mine or take away any mineral found upon or under any land to which this Ordinance applies, unless he be first granted by the Governor a prospecting licence or a mining lease, as the case may be, entitling him to do so. Provided that no licence shall be required by the holder of a Crown grant or Crown lease to quarry or take Stone, Flint, Chalk, Gravel, Sand, Peat and such other substances as the Governor may permit, on application in writing, to be quarried or taken, whether under or upon the land the subject of such grant or lease. Any Stone, Flint, Chalk, Gravel, Sand, Peat or other substance so quarried or taken shall be used exclusively upon such land and no part thereof shall, except by permission of the Governor expressed in writing, be sold, given away, dealt with or disposed of in any other manner whatsoever. Any person acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

Governor may grant licences and leases to prospect and mine.

5. (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor to grant licences to prospect for and leases to mine, take, win, and carry away any mineral upon or under any land to which this Ordinance applies, on such terms and for such periods of time as the Secretary of State for the Colonies may approve, and subject to any Regulations which, from time to time, may be in force.

Licences and leases not to be transferred.

(2) No licence or lease granted under this Ordinance shall be disposed of or transferred without the written sanction of the Governor being first applied for and obtained.

Payment by holder of licence or lease of compensation for damage.

(3) Every prospecting licence and every mining lease granted under this Ordinance shall provide that the holder thereof in the exercise of the right conferred shall do as little damage as possible, and shall be subject to the payment by the licensee or lessee, as the case may be, of reasonable compensation to the grantee or lessee of the land in respect of which the licence or lease is granted, for any actual damage done by him, in the exercise of such right, to any buildings, roads, or pastoral rights on or over the land.

Claim for compensation to be brought within four months.

6. (1) Any claim for compensation for actual damage done by the holder of a prospecting licence or mining lease or by his agent or servants to any buildings, roads or pastoral rights, shall be made by the grantee or lessee of the land and lodged with the Colonial Secretary within four months from the date of the alleged damage sustained.

Claim to be assessed by Board of Arbitrators.

(2) Every such claim shall within six months from the date of its being lodged with the Colonial Secretary be inquired into and the damage if any assessed by a Board of three Arbitrators composed of the Magistrate of the District in which the alleged damage occurred, or such other officer as the Governor may appoint, and two persons resident in the Colony, one of whom shall be nominated by the grantee or lessee of the land lodging the claim and the other by the person to whom the licence or lease is granted.

Appeal to Judge against finding of Arbitrators.

(3) An appeal from the finding of the majority of the Board of Arbitrators shall lie to the Chief Justice whose decision shall be final.

Form of licence and lease and rights conferred by same.

7. A licence to prospect and a lease to mine shall be in such form as may be approved by the Governor, and shall whilst in force, and for the purposes for which it is granted, entitle the holder thereof as well as his authorized agents and servants, together with his or their animals, carts, vehicles, and all things and appliances necessary for the working of the undertaking, to freely enter and to pass at all times on to and over the land named therein, and, subject to the conditions specified therein, to prospect for or to mine, take, win and carry away any mineral found upon or under the land to which the licence or lease shall apply.

8. Every application for a prospecting licence or for a mining lease shall be made in writing to the Colonial Secretary and shall state the position and approximate area and boundaries of the land in respect of which the application is made, and such further particulars as may be required by the Governor.

Applications for licences and leases to be sent to Colonial Secretary.

9. Any person who interferes with or obstructs the holder of a prospecting licence, or of a mining lease, or his agents or servants in the exercise of the rights and privileges conferred on him in pursuance of this Ordinance or of any Regulation made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

Protection of holder of licence or lease against interference.

10. In every prospecting licence there shall be implied and deemed to be inserted therein a condition that the person to whom the same is granted shall actively carry on the work of prospecting to the satisfaction of the Governor, in default of which, the licence may, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, be cancelled by the Governor, when it shall become null and void and all works and property of the licensee on the land shall be forfeited to the Government of the Falkland Islands or otherwise dealt with as the Governor may order.

Work to be actively carried on.

11. Any mineral raised, taken, won or carried away in contravention of the provisions of this Ordinance, or any Regulation made thereunder, shall be forfeited to the Government of the Falkland Islands, and any person so acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

Forfeiture of minerals taken in contravention of Ordinance or Regulations.

12. (1) The Governor in Council may make and from time to time vary Regulations for carrying out the provisions and intent of this Ordinance, and for protecting owners and occupiers of land against undue interference with their rights by operations of mining enterprises.

Making of Regulations.

(2) The Regulations may provide for the payment of such Royalties and fees as the Governor in Council may see fit to impose.

Regulations may provide payment of royalties and fees.

(3) Every Regulation shall have full force and effect on publication in the Gazette.

Regulations in force on publication.

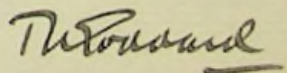

13. Any person found guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, or failing to comply with any Regulation made thereunder shall on summary conviction be liable for every such offence and non-compliance to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds (£50) or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding six months, and in addition, at the discretion of the Governor, if the holder of a prospecting licence or a mining lease, to the cancellation of the same.

Penalties.

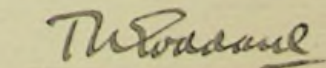

14. This Ordinance shall be in force also in the Dependencies.

Ordinance to apply also to the Dependencies.

An Ordinance to provide for a graduated
Land Tax.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of the Falkland Islands, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

- | | |
| 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Land Tax Ordinance, 1918. | Short Title. |
| 2. There shall from and after the first day of January, 1919, and annually thereafter, be charged levied and paid yearly, into the Colonial Treasury, Stanley, on behalf of His Majesty the King His Heirs and Successors for the use of the Government of the Colony, on all lands, save and except as hereinafter provided, a graduated land tax at the rate per acre specified in Schedule A to this Ordinance, and the said land tax shall be calculated and assessed in accordance therewith on the total and aggregate acreages of all lands held by the owner grantee or lessee thereof. | Graduated Land Tax.

Schedule A. |
| 3. (1) The said land tax shall become due on the first day of January in each year in respect of the year and the owner grantee or lessee of the land shall pay the same as herein provided at and after the rate specified in Schedule A hereto in respect of the total and aggregate acreage of all lands held by him. | Tax due in January each year. |
| (2) The payment annually of the land tax shall be made in two equal instalments on or before the thirty-first day of January and the thirty-first day of July in each year. | Payment of Tax annually in two equal
instalments. |

Penalty for failure to pay tax.

(3) If any owner grantee or lessee shall fail to pay the amount of the land tax or any instalment thereof within sixty days from the date on which the same shall become due and payable he shall be liable to the further payment of a surcharge on the amount of the same equal to one fourth part thereof by way of a penalty and such surcharge shall be recoverable as herein provided.

Acreage of land for purpose of Ordinance.

4. (1) The acreage of all lands upon which the land tax shall be paid shall be the total acreage ascertained by survey made by a qualified land surveyor.

(2) Where no survey of the land has been made before the date of the passing of this Ordinance, and until such time as a survey shall have been made and the acreage of the land ascertained—

(a) the acreage upon which the land tax shall be paid shall be the acreage stated in the Crown grant or lease respecting the land, or

(b) where the acreage of the land is not stated in the Crown grant or lease respecting the land, the acreage upon which the land tax shall be paid shall be the acreage as declared under the provisions of this Ordinance by the Governor in Council.

Governor in Council to declare acreage in certain cases.

5. In every case in which the acreage of any lands has not been ascertained by survey made, or the acreage is not stated in the Crown grant or lease under which the lands are held or occupied, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council by order to declare the acreage of such lands, and the acreage so declared shall for the purposes of this Ordinance be deemed to be the acreage of such lands, and every such order shall have full force and effect and shall remain in force until varied or amended in like manner by the Governor in Council, or until such time as a survey of the land shall have been made and the acreage of the land ascertained.

Return of lands surveyed to be furnished to Treasurer.

6. (1) The owner grantee or lessee of all lands which have been surveyed since the date and issue of the Crown grant or lease respecting the same shall within six months from the date of the passing of this Ordinance, and hereafter within six months from the making of any survey of the same, make and furnish to the Colonial Treasurer a true and correct return of the description and total acreage of all lands held or occupied by him as ascertained by the survey.

Penalty for failure to make return of lands surveyed.

(2) Any owner grantee or lessee failing to make and furnish the return required by this section of the Ordinance shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds and to a further penalty not exceeding twenty pounds a month for every month during which the failure continues after conviction therefor.

Lands exempt from payment of land tax.

7. All lands within the limits of any Town, and all unleased Crown and Government reserved lands, and all lands held by His Majesty's Naval and Military Authorities for the service of His Majesty and by the Colonial Government shall be exempt from payment of land tax.

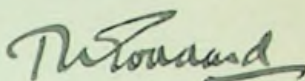

Land Tax charge on lands under Crown Grants and condition under Leases.

8. The land tax under this Ordinance shall constitute a first charge or lien on all lands held under Crown Grant, in respect of which the same is due, and the payment of the tax shall form a condition of the occupation and enjoyment of any and all lands held under Crown or Government Lease.

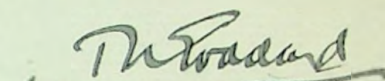

9. The amount of the land tax and any penalty incurred under this Ordinance shall be recoverable by the Colonial Treasurer, or any person duly authorised by him, upon summary conviction.

Recovery of land tax and penalties.

Passed by the Legislative Council this 30th day of October, 1918.

Clerk of the Council.

Assented to by the Governor and given under the Public Seal of the Colony this 31st day of October, 1918.
