Stanley.

Falkland Islands.

30th. August 1948.

Dear Sir,

I beg to make application on behalf of Mr. James Halliday for a permit to gather five thousand (5000) rockhopper penguin eggs on Kidney Island.

Yours truly,

C. G. Davis

Dr. J.E. Hamilton.

Government Naturalist.

To Assistant Treasurer.

From Government Naturalist.

Date 1-9-48.

Penguin Egg Licences.

Since as I observe, the licence forms themselves are receipts for the fees it appeared unnecessary to issue any other receipts. I do not propose, therefore to give any others.

I have consulted the Auditor who is in agreement, as I trust you are yourself.

Government Naturalist.

29 August 1948.
