

GOOD FAMILY

NB: The following is prepared from Falkland Islands Registers and files – there may be other family born outside the Falklands. Unless stated otherwise, all dated births, deaths and marriages occurred in the Falklands and all numbered graves are in Stanley Cemetery. Various spellings of names are recorded as written at the time.

William GOOD was born circa April 1822 at Whitesea, Peterborough, Cambridge, England.

William, age 18 years and 4 months and a labourer, enrolled 28 July 1840 at Queens Square, Middlesex, England. He was a private in the 94th Foot Regiment. His India service was from 13 January 1841 to 15 May 1854

William transferred to the 18th Royal Irish Regiment 1 December 1854 and served 1 year and 8 months. His Crimea service was from 30 December 1854 to 18 July 1856.

William transferred back to the 94th Foot Regiment 1 August 1856; his total service in the 94th was 15 years and 3 months.

William transferred to the Falkland Islands Garrison 1 July 1857. His Falkland Islands service was from 26 October 1857 to 15 April 1864.

William was married to Mary HOGAN née ? (not in the Falkland Islands).

William, Mary and their children Mary Ann and James arrived in the Falkland Islands on board the British Barque Ealing Grove 12 January 1858 as part of the Falkland Islands Company detachment of Pensioners. Apart from the Commanding Officer, Captain Moloney, the Company consisted of three sergeants, two corporals, a drummer and thirty privates. [H14, pg 316]

William's total military service was 23 years and 10 months, including 6 years and 11 months in the Falkland Islands Garrison. On the 25 May 1864 he was recorded as being 42, of exemplary character and received 5 marks. His other overseas service consisted of 13 years and 4 months in India, 1 year and 7 months in Crimea and 6 years and 6 months in the Falkland Islands. He was discharged due to disbandment of the regiment. William was 5 foot 7 inches tall with brown hair and brown eyes and a fresh complexion. [PRO: WO 117/12] William also received the Crimea War Medal clasp Sebastopol and the Turkish Crimea Medal.

On 6 December 1861 Captain Molony informed Governor Moore that he has recovered the sum of £6 from Private Good on account of the damage done to the Government cottage by his wife, now a prisoner in the gaol. [G18; 98]

William, Mary and James left with Captain Molony and his men on board the transport ship Velocidade 23 January 1864.

William was discharged 24 May 1864 at Woolwich and his intended residence was Newry, County Down, Ireland.

William departed 13 April 1867 from Portland, England on the Norwood, arriving in Freemantle, Western Australia 13 July 1867 as part of the Enrolled Pensioner Force. He served there until 1874 when he briefly went to New Zealand before arriving in Tasmania the same year. He was in Tasmania from 1874 to 1878.
