

WATSON FAMILY (1) - James

NB: The following is prepared from Falkland Islands Registers and files – there may be other family born outside the Falklands. Unless stated otherwise, all dated births, deaths and marriages occurred in the Falklands and all numbered graves are in Stanley Cemetery. Various spellings of names are recorded as written at the time.

James WATSON was born circa September 1810 (not in the Falkland Islands). James was married to Mary MAY (not in the Falkland Islands). James and Mary arrived at Port Louis, Falkland Islands 17 November 1840. They were part of a group of 16 people brought out from England by John Bull WHITINGTON.

The earliest mention of Watson is in the Census of January 1842 taken at Port Louis which lists James Watson, age 33, farm servant to Mr Whitington, a protestant living in Falkland House; Mary, age 30 and a house servant to John Whitington. There are no children listed to them.

In the Census of 31 March 1843 James and Mary are listed as a labourer and servant respectively, along with their son James, born Nov 1842, and they are living in a turf hut in Antonina Vale (in the township of Anson).

On 6 January 1844 the surveyor, M R Robinson, reported to the Governor that James, one of three chainmen had exceeded his leave and requested to replace him. [C1; 277, 301]

James' signature was on an address dated 27 June 1846 ridiculing the Magistrate. [C2: 155]

By the Census of 12 October 1846 the family are listed as: James, 30; Mary, 29; James, 4 and Maria (Martha) 2 (note the contradiction of ages).

On 30 December 1847 James was a private in the Company of Infantry of Military Force of the FI and on 6 November 1848 was required to meet at the flagstaff. [E2; 150, 189]

In May 1848 James took the Colonial Chaplain out to HMS Plover. [D3: 248]

James was recommended as bell ringer 13 July 1848 [C4: 25] and was appointed sexton July 1848 [D4: 24].

By the Census taken in 1851 the family are listed as: James, 33 and a labourer; Mary, 32; James, 7 and Martha, 6 and Elizabeth, 2.

Mary, age 32 and the wife of James Watson a labourer, died 1 October 1852 in Stanley from consumption and was buried 3 October 1852. (No grave record).

From October 1858 to June 1872 James was working for the Falkland Islands Company Ltd in the Camp on a monthly wage of £4-3-4.

On 3 September 1866 James applied for the job of Government carter and horse keeper with the hope that the position included a government cottage and use of a garden.

James and his son, James, were charged with unlawful killing of wild cattle in September 1860. [H17; 190]

James, age 80 ½ and an English shepherd, died 1 March 1891 in the house of his son James at Oriquita, Lafonia and was buried 5 March 1891 in Darwin Cemetery. He has no headstone or marker. At the time of his death he was the oldest inhabitant in the Falkland Islands.
