list of books available for distribution to the Canch submitted all are from British Council except those from Mrs. Linton. S/E says that some of them can be lent two pages are quite up to date but there are thrillers among them.
They are not all, as stated, novels (e.g.

Man-eaters of Kuman by Corbett)

He is now going to send a list of all of them to Canch managers and will send the books
as required. I think we should carefully follow up results.

I think S/E should also inform Canch managers that they can get books from the library on payment. Mr. Bedford was most interested to hear this as he had no idea that there was any such system, and was going round to choose some.

We also have a lot of children's books which have been distributed. 30/5/61.

100-103 in 0147 show the latest history. I am inclined to think that some members may have thought that the running of a Canch library scheme was beyond the present librarians.

It will be interesting to see what demand
we get - particularly on pp 1-2.

SE says had a good start has been made

The first request came from Mr. Fleming (sister of Mrs. Ann) (once a member of the crew of the Darwin) who asked for the books marked on pages 1 & 2 of the list.

Can be submitted on 14th to return but SE says he will be able to give a better report after 2 months.

Thank you for list of books in lunch library aren't they sending us too much rather advanced educational sort of stuff, though I agree that some would be useful.

I cannot think why they ~~don't~~ send 'stalled' books
 which are available only to medical profession?

A lot of the books marked 'fiction' are not fiction at all though most of them are very Good. e.g. 027, 058, surely 065 & 067 &

 074, I must imagine 108 & to my knowledge 114.

2/4. Fiction which are really non-fiction -
 a little bit of ~~something~~ I am afraid.
 I found that non-fiction was being looked upon with suspicion - the idea that non-fiction ~~wasn't~~ ~~wasn't~~ being going, therefore all titles (non-fiction) which could be read as a story I have placed in the fiction section - and they are being read!

Dear Sir,

THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING UNION
LADY RANFURLY LIBRARIES.

As a result of correspondence between our Head Office and Lady Ranfurly, Chairman of the English Speaking Union, two tea-chests containing books, mainly for children, were received by the October voyage of m.v. "A.E.S.".

One of these will be sent by the first opportunity to the Headmaster, Darwin School, with a request that he will retain all books suitable for the School, and pass the rest over to Goose Green Store Library for circulation in Lafonia.

The second will be divided into parcels and distributed between the Headmaster, Port Howard School, and the Managers of Port Stephens, Hill Cove, Port San Carlos, Teal I<sup>n</sup>let and Green Patch for circulation among their neighbours when they have finished with them.

The aim of the English Speaking Union, whose Headquarters are at Dartmouth House, 37 Charles Street, Berkeley Square, London, W.1. is "to make free English reading material available to all age groups so as to provide <sup>an</sup> auxiliary to, and an "after care" of, education, and to give pleasure in existing reading publics, and help create new and wider ones".

Lady Ranfurly goes on to say "we hope that the books in these boxes may be useful to your Schools and/or Libraries, but if some of them are not what you want, we shall be very grateful if you will pass them on".

Yours sincerely,

C. P. Dawton

The Honourable
The Colonial Secretary,
STANLEY.
