Hon:Col:Sec;

I should be inclined to regard this matter in the same light as the breaking adrift of one of the F.I.Co's Hulks or Lighters, and the stranding of same either in the inner or outer harbour at Port Stanley. As the hulk "Glengowan" now lies she is not a danger to navigation, nor is she in any danger of breaking up, according to the report so far received. I have notified Mr.W.A.Harding who is more or less acting as agent in the Falkland Islands for Messrs Chr:Salvesen & Co.

2 I have spoken to Mr. Harding
He does not consider himself as the Agent but as the owner of the bulk have a local representative in Mr.
Nott at New Island who has reported the matter to them I do not think any further action is necessary

From Colonial Treasurer &

Receiver of Wrecks

To

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,

Stanley, Falkland Islands.

The attached report from the Master of the s.s. "Afterglow", is submitted for the information of the Governor. The "Glengowan" was originally purchased by Mr. Chr: Salvesen & Co from the Falkland Islands Co, and towed out to New Island in connection with the whaling station at that place. The circumstances regarding the removal of this hulk from Stanley to New Island are, I think, recorded in the C.S.O.

H. M. C. S. "AFTERGLOW",

Stanley, 4th May, 1922.

Sir,

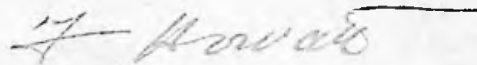

I beg to report that while at New Island, West Falkland, on Saturday the 29th April last, I observed that the Hulk "Glengowan" was not at her usual moorings at the New Island Whaling Station, but that she was ashore on a small island at the entrance of Ship Harbour (New Island). The hulk I was given to understand by Mr. Scott New Island, had broken adrift during the heavy southerly gale on Wednesday the 26th April last.

The "Glengowan" where she now lies is not a danger to navigation, nor is she in any danger of breaking up. It would of course be possible to tow her back, if so desired, to her former moorings at New Island.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Master, H.M.C.S. "AFTERGLOW".

The Honourable

Colonial Treasurer and

Receiver of Wrecks,

STANLEY.
