Government House, Stanley.

5th September, 1918.

Sir,

With reference to your telegram of the 24th June last, containing an enquiry with regard to the Argentine steamship "Argos", I have the honour to inform you that a letter has been received from the Stipendiary Magistrate at South Georgia, dated the 4th July, stating that nothing whatever has been heard of the S.S. "Argos", which was, at the time the Magistrate wrote his letter, seven weeks overdue.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient,

humble servant,

Douglas Young
Governor.

His Excellency

Sir Reginald Tower, K.C.S.G.
