THE BOARD OF TRADE
in pursuance of 57 & 58 Vict., ch. 60.

AGREEMENT AND ACCOUNT OF CREW. FOREIGN-GOING SHIP.

The term "Foreign-going Ship" means every Ship employed in trading or going between some place or places in the United Kingdom and some place or places situate beyond the Coasts of the United Kingdom, the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, Alderney, and Man, and the Continent of Europe, between the River Elbe and Brest inclusive.

Any Erasure, Interlineation, or Alteration in this Agreement will be void unless made with the consent of the persons interested, and attested by some Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office, or Consular or Colonial Officer.

The Several Persons whose names are hereto subscribed, and whose descriptions are contained herein, and of whom five are engaged as Sailors, hereby agree to serve on board the said Ship, in the several capacities expressed against their respective Names, on a voyage from

The Falkland Islands to Magallanes Chile not-exceeding Six months duration.

And it is also agreed, that

And the Crew agree to conduct themselves in an orderly, faithful, honest, and sober manner, and to be at all times diligent in their respective Duties, and to be obedient to the lawful commands of the said Master, or of any Person who shall lawfully succeed him, and of their Superior Officers, in everything relating to the said Ship and the Stores and Cargo thereof, whether on board, in boats, or on shore; in consideration of which Services to be duly performed, the said Master hereby agrees to pay to the said Crew as Wages the Sums against their Names respectively expressed, and to supply them with Provisions according to the Scale on the other side hereof.

And it is hereby agreed that any Embezzlement or wilful or negligent Destruction of any part of the Ship's Cargo or Stores shall be made good to the Owner out of the wages of the Person guilty of the same.

And it is further agreed, that if any Seaman enters himself in a capacity for which he is incompetent, he is liable to be disrated.

And it is also agreed, that the Regulations authorized by the Board of Trade, which are printed herein and numbered are adopted by the parties hereto, and shall be considered as embodied in this Agreement. And it is also agreed, that if any Member of the Crew considers himself to be aggrieved by any breach of the Agreement or otherwise, he shall represent the same to the Master or Officer in charge of the Ship in a quiet and orderly manner, who shall thereupon take such steps as the case may require; and it is also stipulated that advances on account and allotments of part of wages shall be made as specified against the names of the respective seamen in the columns provided for that purpose.

In Witness whereof the said Parties have subscribed their Names herein, on the days mentioned against their respective signatures.

Signed by John Hamilton Master.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MASTERS.

Agreements.

1. The Merchant Shipping Act requires the Master of every Ship, except Ships of less than eighty tons exclusively employed in the coasting trade, to enter into an Agreement with every Seaman whom he carries to sea as one of his Crew. The term "Seaman" includes every person, except Masters, Pilots and Apprentices (duly indentured and Registered), employed or engaged in any capacity on board any Ship.

2. In order to enable the Seamen to know the contents of the Agreement, the Master, at the commencement of the voyage, is bound, under a penalty of 5*l.*, to have a legible copy (omitting the signatures) placed in an accessible part of the Ship.

3. All alterations in any Agreement (except additions in shipping substitutes) are inoperative unless proved to have been made with the consent of all persons interested, by the written attestation of a Superintendent, Justice, Officer of Customs, or other public functionary, or Consular Officer, or where there is no such Officer, of two respectable British Merchants.

4. Fraudulently altering, or making any false entry in, or delivering a false copy of any Agreement, or being a party to such an act, may be punished by the infliction of a Penalty not exceeding 100*l.*, or by imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding six months.

Engagement of Crews and Seamen in the United Kingdom.

5. The Crews of all British foreign-going Ships must be engaged (in the United Kingdom) in the presence of a Superintendent of Mercantile Marine, who will read over and explain the Agreement to the Seamen before they are allowed to sign it.

6. Whenever a Master of a Ship is desirous of making use of the Mercantile Marine Office for the purpose of selecting his Crew, he must inform the Superintendent so that a notice may be published for the information of those men who are seeking employment.

7. In all cases the Superintendent should have at least six hours' notice of the time at which the Master and Crew are to attend to sign the Agreement. Before the engagement of the Crew is proceeded with, the Master must—

- (a) Produce the Certificates for himself, his Mates, and his Engineers (if any), and
- (b) Produce the Apprentices destined for the voyage, together with their indentures.

8. Upon the Master complying with the above Regulations, the Superintendent will, when the engagement of the Crew has been completed, give him a Certificate for clearance outwards.

9. Superintendents will give the like Certificates to Masters of Ships who have entered into running Agreements with their Crews, upon their complying with sub-section 115 (7) M.S.A. 1894, and producing at the Mercantile Marine Office the Certificate of any Mate or Engineer engaged during or subsequent to the last voyage.

10. The engagement of substitutes for Seamen, who have died or left the Ship within twenty-four hours of her putting to sea, is to be made before a Superintendent, if practicable, but if not the Master as soon as possible is to have the Agreement read over and explained to the substitutes in the presence of a witness, who is to attest their signatures.

11. Carrying any Seamen to sea without entering into an Agreement subjects the Master of a foreign-going Ship to a Penalty of 5*l.*

12. The Master of a foreign-going Ship incurs a Penalty of 5*l.*, if he does not report to the nearest Mercantile Marine Office any changes in his Crew before he finally leaves the United Kingdom.

Ports Abroad.

13. Upon the Arrival of the Ship at any foreign Port where there is a British Consular Officer, or at any port in any British Possession abroad, the Master is bound under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds to deliver within forty-eight hours of the Ship's arrival (if the ship remains forty-eight hours at the Port, and is not a Passenger Ship) to the Consular Officer, or the Chief Officer of Customs, the Agreement, and all Indentures and Assignments of Apprenticeships. The Officer will keep them during the Ship's stay at the Port, and will, within a reasonable time before the Ship's departure, return them to the Master with a Certificate stating when they were delivered and returned.

14. If the Ship remains at any port for a period less than 48 hours, and the Consular Officer, or the Chief Officer of Customs is required to issue a certificate for production to the Local Authorities before the Ship's departure from that port, the Ship's Articles should be inspected before the Certificate is issued, and the fee of 2*s.* 6*d.* (as provided in Clause 7 relating to the Fees chargeable by Consuls), for the performance of a specific duty on the Ship's behalf, should be charged. The fee stamp is to be affixed to the Agreement with the crew in the part reserved for endorsements.

15. The engagement or discharge of any Seamen abroad must be made before the British Consul in a foreign port, or before the Customs Officer in a British Possession, who will endorse upon the Agreement a Certificate accordingly. If this Certificate be not made the Master of the Ship is liable to a Penalty. (See also paras 20, 21 and 22 below.)

Return to the United Kingdom.

16. The Crew of every British foreign-going Ship discharged in the United Kingdom must be discharged and receive their wages in the presence of a Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office. An infringement of this law renders the Master or Owner liable to a Penalty of 10*l.*

17. In all cases in which Crews are to be discharged at the Mercantile Marine Office, at least twenty-four hours' notice should be given to the Superintendent by the Master or Owner.

In the column for particulars of discharge, the date, etc., of termination of service should be entered, and if the wages continue to accrue under the Agreement until some later time, the date when they cease should also be stated. It is not necessary to enter the date, &c., of the payment of wages.

18. Within forty-eight hours after the ship's arrival at her final port of destination in the United Kingdom, or upon the discharge of the Crew, whichever first happens, the Master is to deliver to the Superintendent of the Mercantile Marine Office the Agreement, and Official Log Book, and accounts of the wages and effects of any Seaman or Apprentice who has died on board during the voyage, whether he formed part of the Crew or not, any effects remaining unsold, and the balance of wages or other moneys belonging to any such Seaman or Apprentice. When the effects of a deceased Seaman have been sold on board a vessel, the proceeds of such sale must in every case be handed over to the Superintendent, without deduction, unless such proceeds have already been paid by the Master to a Consul or Colonial Officer on behalf of the Board of Trade. The Master is also to deliver to the Superintendent the Certificates (Masters', Mates', Engineers', or Naval Reserve) of any who have died or deserted during the voyage. The Superintendent will then give a Certificate for the purpose of clearance inwards.

19. The Master is to give to every Seaman (or leave with the Superintendent on his behalf) an account, on a form sanctioned by the Board of Trade, of his wages, and of all deductions to be made therefrom, at least twenty-four hours before the time of payment or discharge, under a penalty of 5*l.* for non-compliance. Deductions for fines, forfeitures, &c., which are sought to be made in this account must be proved by proper entries made in the Official Log Book.

20. Upon paying off or discharging any seaman, the Master is bound under a Penalty of 10*l.* to give the Seaman a Certificate of Discharge; and the Master is also bound under a penalty of 20*l.* to return to any certificated Mate or Engineer upon his discharge his Certificate of Competency or Service.

21. A statement of the conduct, character and qualifications of each Member of the Crew, or a statement that he declines to give an opinion on such particulars, is to be entered and signed by the Master in the Official Log Book as required by the Act.

22. Upon payment of wages and settlement of disputes (if any) being effected the Officer before whom the men are discharged will require the Crew to sign in his presence a release from all claims in respect of the voyage just finished, subject to the right of any member of the crew to except from the release signed by him any specified claim or demand, in accordance with the provisions of Section 60 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906. (See page 5. cols. 20 and 21.)
